ANOTHER RELATIVE FOUND

DA SILVA SAID TO HAVE LEFT A SISTER.

The Widow in British Guiana Gets Half and the Sister in Brazil is to be Looked for.

An alleged sister has come forward to claim part of the estate of the late J. A. da Silva, whose death, followed by the deaths of four other Portuguese who drank some wine he left in his room, created a big sensation in the Portuguese colony about a year ago. He was supposed to have died without any relatives, but a widow was heard from in British Guiana, and now a supposed sister has been reported in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

This morning Attorney J. M. Vivas appeared in court in behalf of the sister, who has not been heard of directly for about ten years. She once wrote to Da Silva about coming to Honolulu, and the letter was produced to show that she was his sister and that some children are mentioned in the letter, so that it is claimed that if she is dead, there are nephews and nieces of Da Silva who have rights in the estate.

Judge Gear made an order, at the request of Tom Fitch, that one-half of the estate be turned over to the widow in British Guiana. Then he gave Viva 90 days to get information about the alleged sister. If at the end of that time the woman is not discovered, the estate will all go to the widow.

Da Silva did not intend that his wife should have any of the money left. The couple had been separated for some time, and he spoke to friends here about her, signifying his intention to make a will, but nothing which threw any material light on the cause of the fire was learned. They are in session this afternoon.

FIRE INVESTIGATION.
The special jury called to inquire into the causes of the Honolulu Stockyards fire has been in session today at the police station. The jury has been holding executive sessions. Manager Rice, Night Foreman J. Silva and a number of Chinese employees of the stable were examined but nothing which threw any material light on the cause of the fire was learned. They are in session this afternoon.

NEW HABEAS CORPUS WRIT.
The Yamani habeas corpus matter was heard before Judge Gear this afternoon, and submitted by Attorney F. M. Brooks and Deputy Attorney General J. W. Cathcart. It is an application for a new writ for a man whom Gear recently released and who was arrested again. The new application is on the ground that he has not been given a speedy trial on the warrant on which he was rearrested.

NEW INTERPRETER IN COURT.
George MacCaulay the linguist whose ability was mentioned last week by The Star was called upon yesterday in Judge Wilcox's court to act as interpreter in a case where an Italian was on trial. The case was that of Neutello Dante charged with selling liquor without a license. The defendant was fined $250.

NEW HAWAIIAN MELODIES.

Last evening's concert at the Hawaiian Hotel was enhanced by the rendition of four new Hawaiian songs composed and written by Mrs. Emma Alexandra Kalanikaikalanee Kilolani-nulamamao de Fries and arranged by Captain Berger. Mrs. de Fries and her husband received and entertained a large number of guests on the hotel lawn during the concert.

The four new songs "Kukilakila," "Wal Kaahuia," "Kilolani," and "Liholilo" were received with hearty applause. Mrs. de Fries gaining numerous congratulations on her success.

JAPANESE LABOR BUREAU.

Offers to Furnish Laborers to Plantations.

The Hawaiian Labor Bureau, is the title of a new firm having temporary offices in the Spreckels building, that offers to furnish labor for plantations or other corporations and also to undertake contract work.

The firm is of Japanese origin under the management of T. Matsuoaka, a gentleman of polished manners and fluent English, and has been in existence a few months only. Mr. Matsuoaka was prepared to say how many laborers he could furnish at short notice for a plantation, and stated that their general idea was to center the unemployed Japanese on the different islands with a view to finding them work. To that end branches are to be established shortly on the other islands of the group.

In case of necessity the bureau is also prepared to bring Japanese labor in to Hawaii from the home country, having connections there that will enable them to fill the contract.

Further work done by the bureau consists in contracts of every description, civil engineering or building and generally furnishing Japanese labor to the individual or corporation.

SHERRY AND LOYALTY.

A good story is going about in connection with the royal wine sale. There is, of course a good deal of "tasting" but the quantity allowed is not large to the proposed buyer. Four enterprising gentlemen, however, got hold of a whole bottle for "tasting" purposes, and, retiring to a little room, poured it into glasses. The ringleader had just proposed the king's health when a voice was heard: "I am sure, gentlemen, the king will be much obliged to you for your loyalty." It was the voice of a high court official in charge of the sale.—Notts Guardian.

FROM LORD'S TO COMMONS.
As an instance of new energy in the government whips' room, it may be mentioned that in view of the divisions on the civil list bill the secretary of Lord's cricket ground was requested by wire to send back all unionist M. P.'s that might be watching the play. The result was the dispatch of a dozen in fast handbats.—East Anglian Times.

It is announced that the germs are much exercised over the activity of their enemy, man.—Washington Star.

JUDGE WHO WAS NOT JUDGE

RATHBURN'S "TRANSITION PERIOD" AT KOOLAU.

Reported to Have Tried Several Cases and Dismissed Them After He Had Resigned as Magistrate.

An amusing legacy of the late prominence of Judge W. H. Rathburn of Koolau, he of Little Johnny Dugan memory, has just been brought to the notice of the authorities. When the Rathburn-Carter scandal became known Rathburn resigned his position as magistrate for Koolau.

After the resignation had been accepted, which was almost immediately upon its receipt, Rathburn proceeded, so it is said, to still officiate as a magistrate. Five Chinese were arrested on charges of having entered the room of a Japanese woman and beaten her and also robbed her of some of her possessions. The Japanese were very indignant over the outrage and they insisted upon the prosecution of the crowd.

The outfit was taken before "Judge" Rathburn who, after hearing some evidence proceeded to discharge the entire lot. This disposition of the case made the Japanese very angry and they had the matter brought to the attention of the authorities here. When the fact that Rathburn had acted as judge was learned it was immediately decided that the Chinese could properly be prosecuted again. S. P. Chillingworth was consulted by the Japanese about the matter. He named a certain fee to take the case and have it re-opened. The Japanese held several meetings for the purpose of raising the fee but for some reason, the matter ended in a disagreement and finally, Mr. Chillingworth decided to have nothing further to do with the case. The Japanese have also dropped the matter.

In the meanwhile, "Judge" Rathburn is probably pursuing the even tenor of his way, confident that the justice which was dispensed by him during his term of office and also during the "Transition Period" after his resignation was good and just. Evidently Rathburn seems to hold that the successor does not follow the resigning judge.

FIRE DEPARTMENT REWARDED.
The Washington Mercantile Co., has presented the fire department with a check for $50 for saving the Triangle store on the night of the Honolulu Stock Yards fire. Chief Thurston wishes to extend the thanks of himself and his men for this contribution.

SUCCESS OF REALITY.

A Scottish minister was touring in Belgium. Arriving at Bruges, he looked about for the clock-room. His acquaintance with the language of the country was, however, so imperfect that he failed to make the porter in attendance understand what he wished. Being a man of resource, it flashed across his mind to try a Latin phrase, likely to be understood in a Roman Catholic country. "Requiescat in pace," said he, pointing to his property. The porter smiled, nodded his head to show that he caught the traveler's meaning, snatched up the portmanteau, and took it off to the place where "left luggage" was kept.—The Traveller.
